

Key Stage 5 English

Year 13 should access WJEC for past papers, either planning or writing answers. They all have last year's paper, so if they cannot access the Internet, they should work on that. Research on critical essays on "King Lear", "Wife of Bath" and "Oedipus". Coursework is ongoing up until Easter so they can continue to work towards completion.

Year 12 can also work on coursework, not due in until Easter. They can also research critical essays on "Wuthering Heights" and chosen text.

They have all been told about this, so should know.
